

WHO IS SOUTHERLAND?

Southerland, Inc. was founded in 1893. With over a century of progress in mattress manufacturing, Southerland is a 4th generation family owned corporation.

Dedication to quality and service has been, and is, the basis of its longevity and success. We have paced ourselves with the times, continually updating our equipment and craftsmanship to produce quality bedding.

Southerland, Inc. headquarters are located in Nashville, TN. With production and distribution facilities in Nashville, TN, Phoenix, AZ, Birmingham, AL and Louisville, KY. We have over 175,000 sq. ft. of combined manufacturing / distribution.

We believe service is the key to a successful bedding program. By utilizing Southerland Transportation, a dedicated courier, we are also able to reduce freight cost and improve the delivery experience.

Southerland's purpose is to provide quality bedding, price-wise and value-wise, that is more attractive than major advertised brands.

We are certain that we can meet your bedding needs and appreciate the opportunity to supply you with the same customer satisfaction and commitment to quality bedding that has kept our business growing for over 113 years.

SOUTHERLAND HAS OVER 500 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE WORKING HERE DAILY.

we offer a financially strong company; meeting the highest quality standards, by utilizing longevity, leading edge technology, and a state of the art facility. This provides you, the dealer, with simply the best product for the best price.
